No doubt, this anomaly is the result of the uncertain international environment and high interest rates.

anonymity

(गोपनीयता) state of being nameless; one that is unknown or unacknowledged

In my view, death in anonymity is the ultimate insult to human dignity.

antagonism

(विरोध) active resistance; condition of being an opposing principle, force, or factor

Barry showed his antagonism toward his new stepmother by ignoring her whenever she tried talking to him.

antecede

(antecede) precede; go before in time, and sometimes in place, rank, or logical order

The invention of the radiotelegraph should antecede the development of television by a quarter of a century.

antecedents

(पूर्ववृत्त) preceding events or circumstances that influence what comes later; ancestors or early background

Smuggled out of Germany and adopted by a Christian family, she knew nothing of her birth and antecedents until she was reunited with her family in 1989.

antediluvian

(पुराना) antiquated; extremely old and ancient; belonging to very ancient times

Looking at his great aunt's antique furniture, which must have been cluttering up her attic since the time of Noah's flood, the young heir exclaimed, "Heavens! How positively antediluvian!"

anthem

(गान) song of praise or patriotism; song of devotion or loyalty

Let us now all join in singing the national anthem.

anthology

(संकलन) book of literary selections by various authors

This anthology of science fiction was compiled by the late Isaac Asimov.

anthropoid

(मानवाकार) manlike; resembling a human, especially in shape or outward appearance

The gorilla is the strongest of the anthropoid animals.

anthropologist

(मानवविज्ञानी) one who studies history and science of mankind

Eighty-three years ago, an anthropologist from the Field Museum dug up the remains of 22 people from marked graves in Labrador, Canada.

anthropomorphic

(anthropomorphic) having human form or characteristics

Primitive religions often have deities with anthropomorphic characteristics.

anticlimax

(अवनति) letdown in thought or emotion; decline viewed in disappointing contrast with previous rise

After the fine performance in the first act, the rest of the play was an anticlimax.

antidote

(मारक) medicine to counteract a poison or disease; agent that relieves or counteracts

They believe that because this anti-heroin antidote is what finally worked with some of the victims.

(घृणा) strong feeling of aversion; dislike

Tom's extreme antipathy for disputes keeps him from getting into arguments with his temperamental wife.

antiquated

(प्राचीन) too old to be fashionable, suitable, or useful; obsolete; aged

We are tolerably conversant with the early English poets; and can discover no resemblance whatever, except in antiquated spelling and a few obsolete words.
